AUCTION SALE

Blacksmith stock and tools. As I am about to engage in another business, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, on

FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1910

At One O'clock in the Afternoon on the premises, known as the McLennan blacksmith shop, just off Broad street, on the hill road in Willimantic, Vt.

BLACKSMITH TOOLS

Two Champion blowers, 1 Green River A. A. drilling machine with all necessary bits and drills, 2 anvils, 2 shearing vises, and all fittings for a blacksmith. I have one head vice, 1 large head vice, 1 tire shrinker, will bend and shrink 4-inch tires, 1 toe caulking machine, 1 emery wheel, 2 kits of fullers and swedges, nearly new, 1 set heavy shears for cutting iron, 2 kits shearing tools, 2 kits of blacksmith's tools, 1 tire head, 1 shop stove.

Stock—500 pounds horse shoes, 50 pounds nails, 50 pounds toe caulk, 1 ton of bar iron and steel, regular lengths, bits and bit stock for carpenter work, a quantity of bolts, all sizes, lot of new whitewheels and eveners and a lot of hammers and irons for same.

If you wish for anything in the line of blacksmith tools, it will pay you to attend this sale, as these tools are in first-class condition and will be sold separately or by the piece and not in a lump. Anyone who would like to engage in a business of this kind can buy what they like of this stock and rent the shop very cheap and start in at once. Sale positive. Remember the date, June 3, at 1 o'clock p. m. Terms at sale.

AUCTION SALE

The Home Farm

of the late Reuben Ranger

only six miles from the city of Rutland, on the rural free delivery and stage road. Two minutes' walk from schoolhouse. The farm consists of 350 acres, more or less, suitably divided between tillable land, pasture and woodland. Has a good thrifty apple orchard. The buildings are ample and in first-class repair. There is running water from an unfailing spring in the houses and barnyard. Will do up and keep 50 cows. This is a most desirable place for anyone wanting a good home. It is hard to find a place offering such advantages for keeping summer boarders, as the view from the house is most beautiful. It is surrounded by trout streams and within easy distance for picnic parties are three of the highest peaks of the Green mountains, Killington, Little Killington and Pico.

Also the following personal property: One pair work horses, 1 pair two-year-old steers, two-year-old bull, 2 cows, 10 two-year-old heifers, 4 yearlings, 1 three-inch-axis wagon, 2 two and 24 wagons, 1 buggy, top carriage, 6 pairs bridle-sleds, 1 old sleigh, 2 dumbcarts, 2 grain scatters, 1 ladder, 3 mowing machines, 2 horse rakes, numerous small farming tools, 1 Standard creamery, 1 churn and other dairy articles, 40 cords wood, 10,000 feet boards, blacksmith shop, tools and outfit.

See samples at J. L. Arkley's, corner of Summer and Merchant streets, Barre. C. E. Seearles, 305 North Main St., Barre, General Agent.

Brackett, Shaw & Lunt Company, Somerville, N. H.

A Novel Introduction.

The Dr. Howard company has entered into an arrangement with D. F. Davis' drug store, by which a special introductory offer will be made of 25 cents on the 50-cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

So remarkably successful has Dr. Howard's specific been in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all forms of liver trouble, that D. F. Davis will return the price paid in every case where it does not give relief.

D. F. Davis has been able to secure only a limited supply, as everyone who wishes to be cured of dyspepsia or constipation should call upon him at once, or send him 25 cents by mail, and get 60 doses of the best medicine ever made on this special half-price introductory offer, with his personal guarantee to refund the money if the specific does not cure.

CLAIM A MISTAKE

And That Their Arrest Was Due to Misapprehension.

ST. ALBANS, June 1.—U. S. Marshal Thomas Reeves of Burlington was in this city yesterday and arrested J. J. Thompson and Thomas Roach, holders of state and class liquor licenses in this city, and Henry Tatco, proprietor of the Westside Inn. In Swanton on the charges of a violation of the U. S. statutes relating to the payment of a special tax for selling malt liquors. The respondents were arraigned before former State's Attorney Warren E. Austin, who decided that he had no jurisdiction in the case and the men then furnished him of $200 each for their appearance before the U. S. court at Rutland. The respondents claim that they are not guilty and that the case has been brought through a misapprehension of the tax.

Taking 30 points, Brattleboro high won the track meet with Bellows Falls and Vermont academy. Saturday afternoon, V. A. scored 30 points and Bellows Falls 28.

On Sunday, Thompson of Brattleboro was high man with 30 points.

The Italian camp at Elm corners, Brattleboro, was raided yesterday and ten kegs and two cases of beer were seized. No one was there, and it is not known whether anyone will appear to claim the beer or not. It was locked up.

At the annual drill for the Graves military medal at Vermont academy, held Friday, the prize went to Company B, George Dixon of Melinwood Falls, captain, R. M. Frazena of Bridgport, Conn., won the medal for individual proficiency.

Thirty-two applications for the sale of intoxicating liquors were received by the Rutland board of license commissioners up to Saturday night, when the time for receiving applications expired. The fees for licenses of the first, second and seventh classes have been reduced $300.

Gleno F. Wilson went from Richford to Sutton, Que., May 24, on a business trip, accompanied by Dr. E. C. Lunderville. On the way home, the horse became frightened and kicked, when Dr. Lunderville jumped from the carriage and struck on his heel with sufficient force to fracture the bone.

The annual drive of the Connecticut River Lumber company has reached Bellows Falls and more than 20,000,000 feet was released the first of this week. The drive this year consists of 50,000,000 feet and will reach its destination two months earlier than last year. Two hundred men and 30 horses are working on the job.

Every Congregational church in Vermont is entitled to representation by its pastor and one delegate to the 115th annual meeting of the Vermont Congregational conference to be held at Bethany, in Montpelier, June 14, 15 and 16. The local committees on reception and entertainment have nearly completed arrangements for this gathering.

A valuable automobile owned by the Dewart Grocery company of Bellows Falls and driven by Charles Miller, came to grief Saturday. In attempting to turn around the wheels caught in the car track and the passengers, Dr. M. L. Morrison and James Toner, with the driver, jumped for their lives, getting out of the way just before a fast freight struck the machine, hurling it high in the air.

Several sentences were announced Friday in Windham county court, among them being the following: Charles A. Deyo, found guilty of transporting liquor into Vermont, was fined $250 and costs.

His son, Albert C. Deyo, was fined $100 and costs on the same charge.

Francis Deyo, a son of Charles Deyo, who participated in an attempted break at Bushnell's store, had his case continued. Frank A. Bachell, a Hungarian from Bellows Falls, pleaded guilty to entering the store of Wilson & Abbott of that place and was sentenced to not less than two nor more than two and a half years in state prison. About 13 jury cases are left untried.

Four Barber stores were broken into early Saturday morning by unknown persons. One store robbed was that of W. D. Nutting, where only postage stamps were taken. From Tom Bay, the burglars obtained quite a haul, consisting of three suits valued at $75, three pairs of shoes at $12, three sweaters valued at $18, besides neckties and $3 in money. Shoe boxes were scattered about the store, giving the impression that several pairs had been tried on.

In the variety store of E. N. Lewis, the thieves took about $10 worth of goods, and they entered the hardware store of J. S. Cole, taking nothing. A gang of thieves, who have been working in the vicinity of Rutland, from the similarity of instruments used to get into the buildings. A key to a brake shop was used in each instance to effect an entrance to the building, which is not a common method to employ for such a purpose.

This is ordered by said Court that the 6th day of June, 1910 at the Probate Office in said Montpelier, be assigned for proving valid the will of the late John C. Deyo, deceased, all persons concerned by publishing this order three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper circulating in that vicinity, and in the County Clerk's office, in the Probate Court, held at Montpelier, within and for said District on the 13th day of May, 1910, and the will of the late John C. Deyo, deceased, all persons concerned by publishing this order three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper circulating in that vicinity, and in the County Clerk's office, in the Probate Court, held at Montpelier, within and for said District, on the 13th day of May, 1910.

Given under my hand at Montpelier, in said District, this 1st day of June, 1910.

FRANCIS J. MARTIN, Judge.
